

Guest Speaker: Toby Travis
1 Peter 3:15

Daily Bible Readings
March 30—April 5

Follow-Throughs

These chapters in Acts provide examples of believers sharing their faith. What examples can you see of:
living a Christ-honoring life studying to be better prepared to give an answer being alert to spiritual opportunities

April is "Invite a Friend to Dinner" month. With whom could you share a meal, in your home or in a restaurant, with the purpose of building a bridge of love and communication for Jesus' sake? Is there someone you could invite to come with you to a Good Friday or Easter service?

Monday Acts 16

Tuesday Acts 17

Wednesday Acts 18

Thursday Acts 19

Friday Acts 20

Warm-Ups

Saturday Mark 14:12-36

What stresses was Jesus feeling on this occasion? What pressures are you presently facing? Meditate on the phrase in verse 36: "Everything is possible for you." In what areas do you need to pray, "Not what I will, but what you will"?

Sunday Mark 14:37-42

In what ways does prayer help to protect us and prepare us for times of temptation? Where are you being tempted right now, or are likely to be tempted? Who else could you invite to pray with you?

We believe that as followers of Jesus we have been sent into the world to be his witnesses, to tell the good news of forgiveness and new life through him. We believe that our first responsibility, and best opportunity, in sharing the good news is within the natural relationship networks of our daily lives. We believe that persuasive words and loving actions cannot be separated. Both are reflections of the love that inspired God to send Jesus into the world.